

i) Panacea :

Students of Tribal welfare will now be entitled to better health care facilities as well due to the latest policy initiative, Panacea. Through this Panacea, the authorities can monitor the health status of their all institutions across the state. The round the clock facility with centralised control system located with the society headquarters at Masab Tank will monitor the health and hygiene of the students with the help of Health assistants appointed in every hostel.

ii) 24x7 staff Nurse available at college:

Armed with medicines and first aid equipments, health assistants will be regularly updating health profiles of students .24x7 at the control centre, to answer queries and take care of students, doctors will be available.

Contact numbers : 8367722222 & 8367744444

iii) Referring students to super speciality hospital :

Based on the interaction with staff Nurse and with doctors at the control centre, a decision will also be taken on the taking the ward to the nearest government hospital and to the super speciality hospitals if need be.

iv) Special care and diet to sick students:

For the students of Telangana Tribal welfare residential Institutions have been provided with nutrition's food and special care will be always taken for students by continuous monitor