

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

- The department of political science was started in the year 2017 with B.A Program
- The department offers a regular full time Six semesters UG Program in political science
- Annual/semester/ choice based credit system: CBCS
- The department maintain an effective tutorial system to foster healthy relationship among teachers and students.
- The department has a long tradition of imparting of education.

VISION

To provide students up-to-date knowledge about society and polity that will equip them to face multiple challenges unleashed by contemporary modern society and prepare them to perform their role as a responsible citizen.

MISSION

- To develop the abilities of critical evaluation and sound judgment of the issues of the political system among students . . . .
- To inspire students to achieve goals for development of the nation.

OBJECTIVES

- Students should learn how to understand and address real-world problems.
- To help the students pursue their higher education in political science.
- To learn how recognize their role in promoting positive social change.
- Helping students develop critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and communication skills.

SWOC ANALYSIS

Strength

- Dedicated and energetic teaching faculty.
- Impressive result of final examinations.
- Increasing student's strength in course.
- Besides fixed curriculum the students are encouraged to participate various seminars, extensions activities, lecture classes etc.

Weakness

- ICT enables classroom for department is not sufficient.
- Limited departmental resources for faculty and students.
- Poor social economic states of the students.
- College Situated in rural area.

Opportunities

- In spite of having its limitations, the department tries to render quality education, encourages and prepares students for building their higher academic career.

Challenges

- To make as an interesting/ Potential subject among the rural local students.

The department of political science guides and support the Students in following areas:

- P.G and Employability coaching
- Extension Lectures
- Remedial Classes
- Students are promoted as coordinators in various activities
- Support to develop study and Research Projects
- Personality Development Programme.
- Field and Educational trips.
- Guidance for competitive Exams.